Josh and Aaron,

The draft is ready for your review. I'll still be working on some of the footnotes and have a couple of questions to address as noted in the text. I've shared a folder that includes the draft as well as two documents used as guides for writing. If you can work directly on the linked version of the document we won't have to reconcile our individual changes later and we can collaborate with other reviewers.

The draft is BigBrown_Monticello_CDD.docx

Let me know if you have any immediate questions or concerns.

Best regards,
Bob

Hi Josh and Aaron,

This is just a heads up that I'll be finishing a draft of the notice tomorrow and will be sharing a link for your review.
